WAITRESSES WANTED

(By Associated Press)
Allied troops on the northern end of the front in France today are driving into the German line from west of Ghent past Tournai to Valenciennes. This is the line of the Scheldt and two of the important points on it are almost within the grasp of the British. German resistance is stiffening between Tournai and Valenciennes, the southern end of the 80-mile line to the Dutch frontier. The British army, however, continues to progress. North of Tournai the British are along the Scheldt on a front of 5 miles and north and south of this sector are rapidly gaining the western bank of the river. French forces continue their pressure on the front from the junction of the Oise and the Seine eastward to Vouziers. On the extreme left they have advanced north of the Serre. East of the Aisne the Germans have ceased their violent efforts to dislodge the French from important hill positions. The French here are in position to outflank the Germans facing the Americans on the sector west of the Meuse, which accounts for the strong German efforts to drive the French back. Gen. Gourard's men, however, have defeated the enemy attacks.

Official London Thus Interprets Note

ROCHESTER

Rochester, Oct. 23.—Last night the stable of Spera Beck, commonly a Peking's Crossing, 40x80 feet, was destroyed by fire, and the reduction of the flames could be seen a long distance. The brick season being over, the greater part of the help has gone home, but people living in the vicinity helped fight the flames, which burned so furiously that it was with difficulty that they were checked. They were fed by 14 tons of hay in the barn which was destroyed and other property lost consisted of four valuable team horses, work rigging, a trotting horse and a flock of hens belonging to Charles Tessler. Thirty cords of wood situated near the barn and nine pigs were destroyed. Two large hogs escaped. The fire was checked in the woodpile after the above amount of wood had been consumed. A telephone message was sent to the central fire station and the chemical truck was sent to the scene, doing efficient service. The total loss will amount to $5,000. There was no insurance on the barn. Sparks flew in great quantities, endangering buildings in the vicinity, and a number of people who would have gladly fought the flames, were detained at home to prevent their own buildings from catching fire from the sparks. The barn was in good condition. The company has not yet decided on future plans, but undoubtedly will build a commodious barn at its site.

U. S. ABROAD BUILDING BIG SEA MINE BARRAGE

Asst. Secy. Roosevelt Says We Don't Realize How Our Men Are Blocking Submarines and Protecting Coasts

Washington, Oct. 22.—Details of the construction of the North sea mine barrage against submarines, laying of an anti-submarine mine across Scotland, establishment of naval aviation stations from the Spanish border to the English channel and of other work of the American navy in foreign waters were given to the public today by Assistant Secretary Roosevelt, who recently returned from a visit to Europe.

"The American people seem to have very little idea of the extent of our naval activities abroad," said Secretary Roosevelt. "The tendency is to think merely of the conveying and patrol work our destroyers and other vessels are doing and the presence of our battleships with the British fleet. But, important as this is, it is only a part of our activities. There are dozens of other things of importance of which little has been said."

Building of the northern mine barrage was one of the biggest things ever accomplished in our naval work," Roosevelt said. In turning out material for it a number of plants in this country were kept busy for months. Several American bases were established on the British coast to lay and handle the mines.

To save haulage of oil, the American navy has proceeded to construct a pipeline across Scotland," said Mr. Roosevelt.

"All the way from the Spanish border, clear around to the English channel, we have established aviation stations, so spaced that the entire coast line is covered by airplanes and dirigibles. These stations were built almost entirely by our sailors. At each station there is an average of from 300 to 500 men. This aviation force and our patrol vessels have been doing such good work that for the past six months there have been virtually no sinkings within 50 miles of the French coast. We hope to extend this patrol zone to 100 miles."

In northern France in co-operation with the British and Belgians, Secretary Roosevelt said, there has been established what is known as the northern bombing group, composed of a number of aviation units, which are doing much to prevent the Germans from again using Zeppelings and Ostent as submarine bases.

An American naval force, co-operating with the British at Gibraltar, is patrolling the Atlantic in that vicinity and is acting as convoy to vessels going to and from Italy, Greece and Egypt. There is a flying school with several naval aviation units on duty in Italy, while in the Adriatic is a large group of submarine chasers.

Each naval base has its hospital, and in Scotland an entire watering place has been taken over by the Americans for such use.

"Conditions have vastly improved since last year," said the secretary, in referring to the submarine menace, "but we cannot afford to let up in our activities for one second. In regard to the respect which U-boats have shown for international law, you have but to ask any officer or man in our own or in the British or French navies. They will tell you, and prove to you great numbers of actual cases, where the Hun has violated every rule and every principle of humanity."

EXETER

Exeter, Oct. 22.—Martin A. Horne of Dover was the solitary man before the municipal court Monday morning as the result of the haul which the authorities made on the train from Haverhill Saturday night. The 67 who were arrested were taken to Dover. Horne thinking to escape the officers alighted at Exeter, but Detective Small was too quick for him, and notified Officer Howe to take him. Horne had eight hours which the "dude" was for his own personal use. He was fined $25 and costs of $30.62 and given till Nov. 2 to pay. Many of the passengers possessing liquor took the chance of throwing it out the car window before the sheriff's approached them, and it is stated that many quarts of liquor was strewn along the line between Exeter and Newfields, some of the bottles being unbroken.

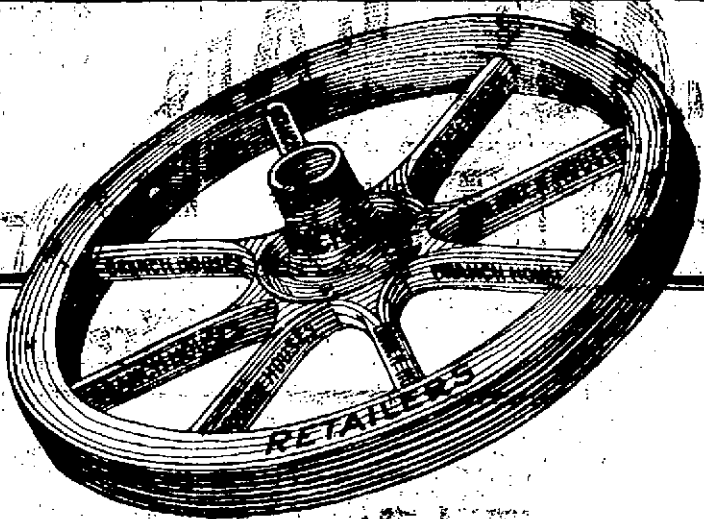

It was the biggest roundup of liquor transporters ever pulled off in New Hampshire, there being three automobile loads of it unloaded at the Dover station. Detective Small was intending to take his captives to Exeter, but they were so numerous that it was thought best to take them to Dover, where the police force is larger.

Major John G. W. Knowlton, who has been in France for the past year or more, and who has been confined to foreign hospitals with an attack of meningitis, arrived at his home here Saturday afternoon, and Monday was greeted by his many friends. Major Knowlton first went to the front with the New Hampshire Field Hospital corps and did duty on the Mexican border for a time. He appears to be rapidly recovering from his illness, showing practically no effects from it at present. He tells interesting stories of the present war, which are mingled with optimism. When asked if the war was not likely to end soon he replied that by another year the Huns would be hoked.

Richard B. Shute, town treasurer Monday, tendered his resignation to enter the service.

"Spokes" and the Swift "Wheel"

What would you consumers think of a wheel without spokes?

What would you think of a man who would take any or all of the spokes out of a wheel to make it run better?

Swift & Company's business of getting fresh meat to you is a wheel, of which the packing plant is only the hub. Retail dealers are the rim—and Swift & Company Branch Houses are the spokes.

The hub wouldn't do the wheel much good and you wouldn't have much use for hub or rim if it weren't for the spokes that fit them all together to make a wheel of it.

Swift & Company Branch Houses are placed, after thorough investigation, in centers where they can be successfully operated and do the most good for the most people at the least possible cost.

Each "spoke" is in charge of a man who knows that he is there to keep you supplied at all times with meat, sweet and fresh; and who knows that if he doesn't do it, his competitor will.

How much good would the hub and the rim of the Swift "wheel" do you if the spokes were done away with?

GERMANY HAS ACCEPTED PRESIDENT WILSON'S TERMS

NOTE WILL NOT BRING AN ARMISTICE

(By Associated Press)

Washington, Oct. 21.—Germany has replied to President Wilson in a note which no one is prepared to think will lead the President to consent to an exchange on the subject of an armistice and later peace. At least it indicated that the people of Germany are taking a hand in the government.

There is no intimation of the attitude of the President and none is expected until the official text arrives. The President spent the greater part of the evening in conference with Secretary of State Lansing.

Like the reply to the first note, it was sent out by the German wireless and picked up by the other nations hours before the official message could be sent through by cable. It is expected that the official text will arrive tomorrow through the Swiss minister. Senator Hitchcock, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said that while the German Government had accepted the terms of the President he did not believe that an armistice would be granted. Senator Lodge and other senators refused to make any comment until they have studied the official text.

"The note appears," said Senator Hitchcock, "to be an acceptance of the President's stipulations, but in my judgment it will not result in an armistice. The military authorities of the Allies will impose terms so hard that Germany will hesitate to accept them and this will cause delay. In the meantime the war will go on. So far as the change in the German Government is concerned the President's terms are met, but the note did not indicate that it was in compliance with the President's wishes, but the wishes of the German people."

NEWSPAPERS CONSIDER NOTE UNSATISFACTORY

(By Associated Press)

Boston, Oct. 21.—Editorial comment by some hundred newspapers throughout the country gathered tonight by the Associated Press on the German reply, are that the note is in every way unsatisfactory and that the war must go on until Germany lays down her arms in unconditional surrender.

note that the submarine commanders have been instructed not to torpedo or fire upon any more passenger ships.

Denials are also made that passenger and life-boats have been fired upon or that there has been any authorized atrocities committed by the German troops.

The message declares that Germany now has a parliamentary form of Government responsible to the people. Comment on the note is being withheld by the officials.

TEXT OF GERMANY'S REPLY TO PRESIDENT WILSON

In accepting the proposal for an evacuation of occupied territories, the German Government has stated from the assumption that the procedure of this evacuation and of the conditions of an armistice should be left to the military advisers and that the actual standard of power on both sides in the field has to form the basis for arrangements safe-guarding and guaranteeing this standard.

The German Government suggests to the President that an opportunity should be brought about for fixing the details. It trusts that the President of the United States will approve of no demand which would be irreconcilable with the honor of the German people and with opening a way to a peace of justice.

The German Government protests against the reproach of illegal and inhumane actions made against the German land and sea forces and thereby against the German people. For the covering of a retreat destructions will always be necessary and they are carried out in so far as is permitted by international law. The German troops are under the most strict instruction to spare property and to exercise care for the population to the best of their ability. Where transgressions occur in spite of these instructions the guilty are being punished.

The German Government further denies that the German navy in sinking ships has ever purposely destroyed lifeboats with their passengers. The German Government proposes with regard to all those charges that the facts be cleared up by neutral commissions.

In order to avoid anything that might hamper the work of peace, the German Government has caused orders to be dispatched to all submarine commanders precluding the torpedoing of passenger ships without, however, for technical reasons, being able to guarantee that these orders will reach every single submarine at sea before its return.

As a fundamental condition for peace the President prescribes the destruction of every arbitrary power that can separately, secretly, and of its own single choice disturb the peace of the world. To this the German Government replies:

Hitherto the representation of the people in the German Empire has not been endowed with an influence on the formation of the Government.

The constitution did not provide for a conference of representation of the people in decisions of peace and war. These conditions have just now undergone a fundamental change. A new Government has been formed in complete accordance with the wishes (principles) of the representation of the people, based on equal, universal, secret, direct franchise.

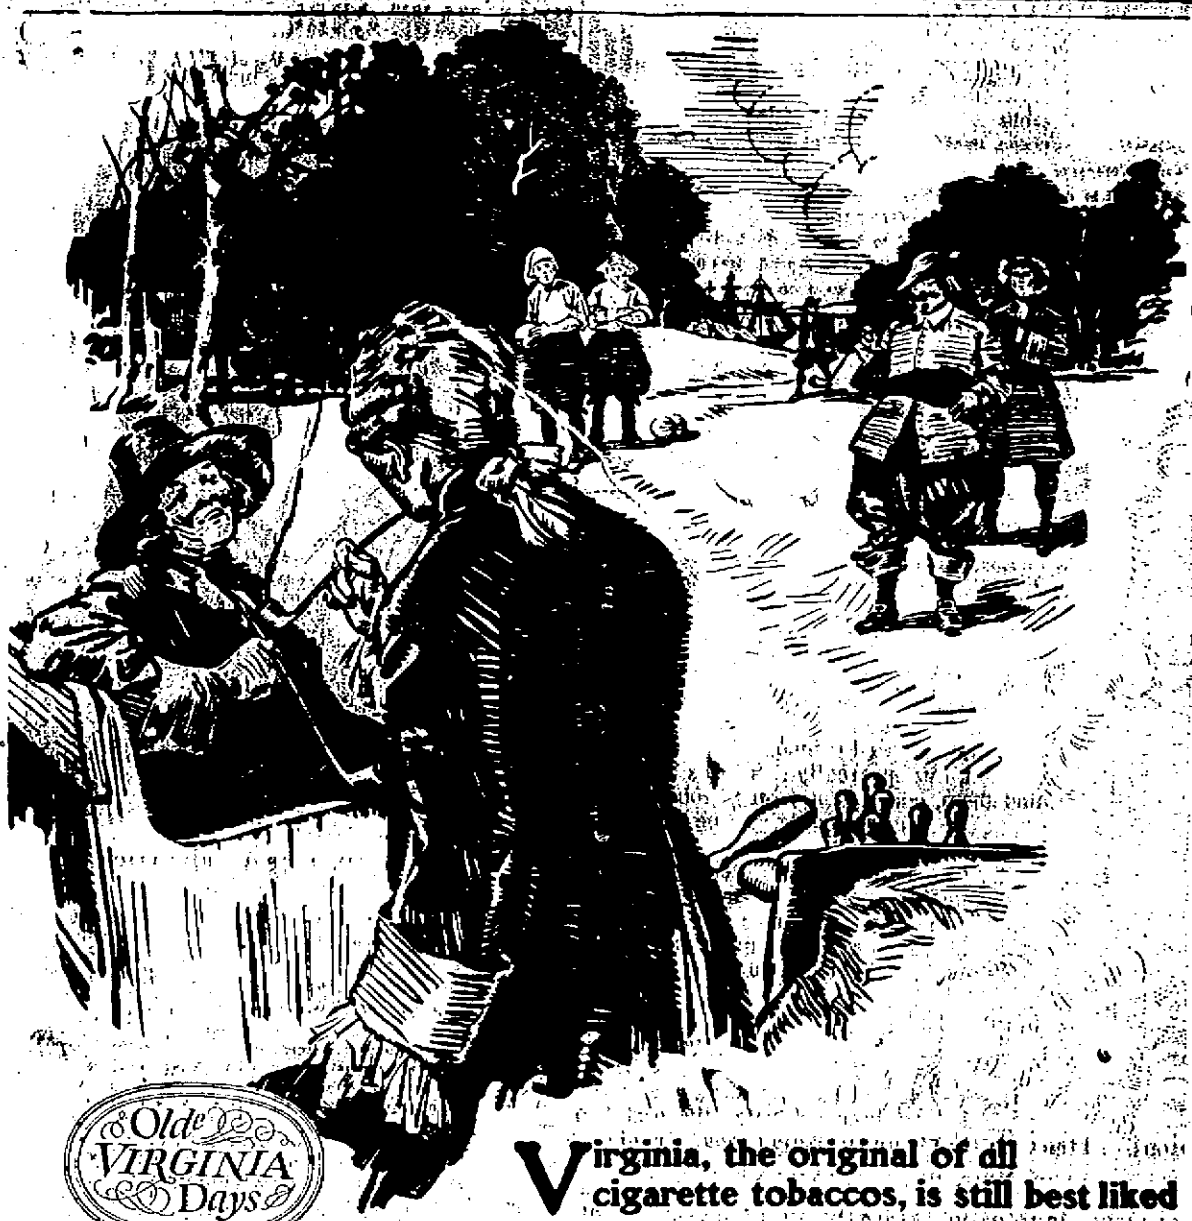

The leaders of the great parties of the Reichstag are members of this Government. In the future no Government can take or continue in office without possessing the confidence of a majority of the Reichstag.

The responsibility of the chancellor of the empire to the representatives of the people is being legally developed and safeguarded. The first act of the new Government has been to lay before the Reichstag a bill to alter the constitution of the empire so that the consent of the representation of the people is required for decisions on war and peace.

The permanence of the new system is, however, guaranteed not only by constitutional safeguards, but also by the unshakable determination of the German people whose vast majority stands behind these reforms and demands their energetic continuance.

The question of the President—with whom he and the Government are dealing—is therefore answered in a clear, unequivocal manner by the statement that the offer of peace and an armistice has come from a Government which is free from any arbitrary and irresponsible influence, and its supported by the approval of an overwhelming majority of the German people.

Virginia, the original of all cigarette tobaccos, is still best liked

Those early planters, with their simple enjoyments, never dreamed that their tobacco—good old Virginia—would some day be one of America's big industries. It is the world's best-liked tobacco for cigarettes (see footnote).

The rich soil and golden sunshine of Virginia give to its tobacco an appetizing freshness—a "lively," "snappy" taste that is entirely lacking in ordinary cigarettes.

"A package of Piedmonts, please."

Piedmont CIGARETTES

NOTE: The quantity of Virginia tobacco made into cigarettes during the past year was in excess of 300 million pounds—as against only 62 million pounds of foreign-grown tobacco. That is about five to one! And, Piedmont is the biggest-selling Virginia cigarette in the world.

GENERAL ADVANCE BY THE AMERICANS AND BRITISH ON THE WESTERN FRONT

In the war fronts the Allies are taking no heed of the efforts to establish peace, and are driving the Germans on all the fronts, but meeting with much stiffer resistance. In the work the Americans are playing a prominent part.

The British and Americans have approached to within two miles of Valenciennes and the Americans north-east of Verdun, have succeeded in occupying two highly important positions they have been striving for.

American and British troops have crossed the Oise canal on a wide front in the face of desperate resistance on the part of machine gunners.

The Valenciennes-Hippion railroad, formerly one of the most important German arteries of communication, has been cut. The west bank of the Scheldt canal has been occupied by the British ten miles to the north of Tournai, which city is being defended by masses of Germans and multitudes of machine guns.

Belgium is gradually being cleared of the enemy, although the Germans, having drawn in their line to a shorter front, are offering a much greater resistance.

The city of Ghent, one of the objectives which the Allies are after, is yet seven miles away. Probably it will be evacuated from the north. Allied troops, having made considerable progress in this direction, the Germans are now on a line with their right on the Dutch border and extended in an almost straight line to the Oise river. A new move on Courtrai, which is meant to help to free the northern Belgium of the Germans, is well under way and it is expected it will threaten them on the north and south.

The French troops have reached the Dunube in Vidin after an offensive operation lasting for a month. In the eastern theatre of war.

NEW ENGLAND GOES OVER BY $40,000,000

(By Associated Press)

Boston, Oct. 21.—New England over-subscribed its quota in the Fourth Liberty Loan by more than $10,000,000. Incomplete returns in the hands of the committee today totalled $511,357,000, with 150 banks still to report. Every state in the district except New Hampshire exceeded its quota by the face of these early returns. The committee was confident that when the final accounting was made, several more millions would be added to the district total. Saturday subscriptions so far as reported today amounted to $28,181,000, divided among the states as follows: Massachusetts $14,956,000; Rhode Island $2,227,000; Vermont $2,350,000; New Hampshire $2,269,000. The standing of the states follows: Massachusetts $341,262,100; Connecticut $90,416,000; Rhode Island $55,766,000; Maine $26,169,000; New Hampshire $18,715,000; Vermont $13,038,000.

Portsmouth, N. H., Tuesday, October 22, 1918.

Back to Standard Time.

It is announced that Congress will make no further effort to continue through the winter what is called the saving of daylight. In fact, it has not made much of an effort. A few members thought it would be well to make no change from the present arrangement, but apparently there was little public sentiment behind them, consequently on October 27 the clocks will be set back one hour and will again be true to the sun.

And it will be better so. Through the winter the daylight saving plan would save little or no daylight or fuel. People going to work at the usual hour would have to get up long before daylight. In many places of employment they would have to go to work before daylight and nothing would be gained.

Through the summer the arrangement has probably been beneficial to many people. It has caused starting the day's work an hour earlier and has left time after the completion of the regular work of the day for labor in the war gardens, large numbers of which have been cultivated the past two seasons. At the same time there are many people who did no gardening or other work aside from their regular occupations, and these have simply had half of the afternoon for loafing or any other diversion to which they saw fit to give their attention.

In a communication to a newspaper a writer sets forth that the daylight saving plan has been positively detrimental to the farmers. It was time to begin the day's work long before the dew was off and the hired men quit in the afternoon when the hour struck, leaving two or three of the best hours for harvesting hay and grain unused unless they were bribed to work overtime. Any one familiar with farming conditions must realize that it is neither pleasant nor profitable to quit work at 4 o'clock (true time) in the afternoon when daylight lasts until between 7 and 8.

However, the experiment is nearing its end for this year. Some one has figured out that it has saved $45,000,000 to the country, though it might be difficult to place one's hand on the money. Nothing is easier than to make and save money—on paper.

Much of the time in the winter season in this part of the country eight hours will cover about all the daylight there is, and there is no better time for noon than when the sun casts a shadow due north. It will therefore be better to set the clocks so they will correspond. People who get to work at 7 in the morning (true time) in winter begin quite early enough and there is reason to fear that "daylight saving" continued through the winter would constitute a hardship instead of a blessing.

But the question has been settled and next Sunday morning back go the clocks one hour, and we shall again be under normal conditions so far as the time of day is concerned. It is safe to predict that the change will be highly acceptable to the great majority of the people, whose morning gas, coal and electric light bills will be heavy enough when gauged by true time.

A puzzling typographical error appeared the other day in one of our contemporaries. In a dispatch from London, Ex-Premier Asquith was made to say that "The reply must come from the German people themselves." The question is whether Mr. Asquith said "themselves" or "himself." Perhaps under the circumstances either would be right, but "himself" never.

The Republicans of this state have decided to hold no rallies in the coming campaign, owing to the prevalence of influenza, but will present their claims to the voters "through the newspapers, the mails and other agencies." If they will make proper use of the newspapers all will be well. These are what really do the business in spite of all the rallies that may be held.

The automobilists are feeling better and the roads will be "scorched" on every remaining pleasant Sunday of the season. The ban has been respected in a way to warrant a little "cutting loose," now that the opportunity has come. And especially will the privilege be appreciated when so many of the churches are closed!

General Pershing has appealed to the coal miners to speed up operations. But is this necessary? Hasn't he enough to attend to without bothering about the mining of coal in the United States? And isn't there enough officialdom here to see to this if it will attend to business?

Mrs. Wilson, wife of the President, had a birthday a few days ago, and conspicuous in some of the newspaper notices of the happy event was the failure to state her age, which must have been somewhat disappointing to the feminine readers.

WILL HAVE CHARGE OF MATERIAL SECTION

COMMANDER R.C. SCHLABACH

The recent transfer of Naval Constructor R. C. Schlachach from the Portsmouth navy yard to Washington gives that officer his first period of duty in the bureau of Construction and Repair.

The assigning of an officer from out side to bureau work is considered in a way as a promotion as far as important duties of a man of his rank is concerned.

Constructor Schlachach will be attached to the material section and will have charge of all the purchases of the necessary material of this bureau for Naval Construction.

While working in the bureau his position there will still interest him in the manufacturing at Portsmouth navy yard for the Industrial Department especially that of boat building, block making, cooperage, spar making, rigging, sail making, cargo nets and about everything turned out in wood working shops here.

In his official capacity at Washington he can direct or recommend certain work for Portsmouth and knowing as he does what the local yard can do it is likely that there will be no hesitation on his part in seeing that this station is allotted its share of the work.

FAIR FOOD PRICES

For the Week Commencing Oct. 22.

The following are considered fair and reasonable prices for the current week as determined by the Portsmouth Price Interpreting Committee, under authority of the Food Administrator.

The prices that the consumer should pay depends, in part, on the service rendered by the retailer. In the column under "Consumer" the first price given opposite a commodity is the fair price at a "Cash and Carry" store where the retailer does not deliver goods or extend credit. The second price given is the fair price at a store that delivers goods and extends credit.

Consumers are asked to report to the Local Food Administrator any case in which a retailer charges a higher price than those here quoted. The consumer should bring in or send in the sale slip covering this transaction.

NAVY YARD NEWS

Praise for Employees

The following bulletin has been issued by the acting industrial manager in praise of the men of the Industrial Department for their part in the Fourth Liberty Loan:

To each Employee of the Industrial Department:

Representing the Industrial Manager in his absence, the undersigned desires the privilege of most sincerely congratulating each employee of the Industrial Department on the notable achievement of this yard in the Fourth Liberty Loan.

Lieutenant Ferrell, chairman of the Liberty Loan Campaign at this yard.

informing me that against the goal set for the Portsmouth yard of $460,000, the final total is $380,700. Toward this splendid result the men and women of the Industrial Department are responsible for $624,000, and best of all is the fact that in this sum each and every officer and employee, without exception, has a personal share.

The Navy slogan for this loan was: "Fight or Buy Bonds—The Navy does both."

"This slogan you have one and all taken unto yourselves, to you it means—Work and Buy Bonds—We do both."

The country's goal for the Fourth Liberty Loan, double that of the third, has gone "Over the Top." The Industrial Department employees have a real share in this, and the one hundred percent record of subscriptions is one which you may well take pride in. You men and women who have bought bonds in this manner, as the management knows, are the kind who are right behind our navy at sea, doing day by day your best in the way of the day's work. It cannot but be a source of gratification and pleasure to each one of us of the management to serve with employees so loyal.

H. L. WYMAN,
Captain U. S. Navy,
Industrial Manager Acting.

Commanded by Daniels

Machinist Mate John W. Hill of Manchester, N. H., has been commended for jumping overboard in a storm and making a zeppelin secure, thus preventing its destruction.

At the same time Secretary Daniels commended the pharmacist's mates and hospital apprentices for conspicuous bravery in attending wounded Marines in France under shell fire. The Navy Department also announced that two enlisted men had been commended for quick thinking in emergencies.

Visited the Navy Yard

Governor Keyes, Congressman Burroughs, George H. Moses and Col. John H. Bartlett visited the navy yard today for inspection of the several plants. They were met by Comdr. Almy, aide to the commandant, who conducted them about the reservation.

SAYS FLIES NEARLY ATE FAMILY ALIVE

Refused to Pay Board on that Account at Ogunquit.

Savage, hungry insects, known as flies, were the cause of a hearing at Biddeford on Monday. In which the proprietor of the Colonial Inn at Ogunquit seeks to recover the sum of $180. from Frederick A. Sweet, a Worcester school teacher who, with his family, were guests at the Colonial during the past summer. The Worcester man says the flies were nearly as fierce as ligers and that they about ate him alive.

For the punctures made in his hide by these busy little flies, he refused to pay for the alleged savage attack made on his family by the winged insects. He claims that he did not receive that for which he had contracted. The hearing was in the municipal court and the decision was reserved.

THREE DEATHS AT EMERGENCY HOSPITAL

There were three deaths at the Emergency hospital in the twenty-four hours ending at midnight, and there is one more patient in a critical condition. No patients were admitted to the hospital on Monday and there were a good number discharged so that last night there were only twenty patients, and many of these will be discharged today.

The condition about the city was also much better but the Public Health Service were unable to tell how many new cases as some of the physicians have stopped reporting.

At the Red Cross diet kitchen there was no appreciable change, forty-nine families being cared for and three were new cases. The principal needs of the kitchen are for fresh eggs and oranges.

PRESENT CLUB MEMBER WITH RING

Mr. Brown was presented with a handsome Pythian ring, the presentation being made by President Massey, who explained that the epidemic prevented the club giving him the usual royal sendoff they had accorded their other members.

"FORDS"

Now that new Ford Cars are scarce the next best thing to do is to have your present car put in good running order. With a little care and very small expenditures you can keep your car up to date and in good mechanical order. But when you have these things attended to be sure and insist on getting genuine Ford parts. There are many substitutes and imitations and they are all supposed to be just as good but if your car is worth spending any money on it at all, why not use a little care and see that it is repaired right by using genuine Ford parts manufactured by the Ford Motor Co. of Detroit.

We have a large supply of parts in stock ready for immediate use.

CHILDREN HATE PILLS, CALOMEL AND CASTOR OIL

If cross, feverish, constipated, give "California Syrup of Figs."

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the "dose" mother insisted on—castor oil, calomel, cathartics. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them.

With our children it's different. Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. The children's revolt is well-founded. Their tender little "insides" are injured by them.

If your child's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing, give only delicious "California Syrup of Figs." Its action is positive, but gentle. Millions of mothers keep this harmless "fruit laxative" handy; they know children love to take it, that it never fails to clean the liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach, and that a teaspoonful, given today saves a sick child tomorrow.

Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on each bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. See that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

The following is the list of the young men who will report this forenoon and leave for the fort before noon possibly with others of the quota who will arrive on the Concord train, but all of the quota will not be in until the last train at night.

WORKERS NOT BLAMED FOR UNEMPLOYMENT

Washington, Oct. 21.—Most unemployment has no connection whatever with any fault of the worker, says the bureau of labor statistics in its bulletin "Public Employment Offices in the United States."

"Unemployment and irregular employment," it is stated, "occur largely because of highly developed, highly specialized and rapidly changing industries, coupled with a labor market almost completely unorganized, or disorganized. More and more, intelligent people are coming to recognize that the industrial system is responsible in a large degree for unemployment, but whoever is responsible, the demoralizing consequences resulting from unemployment are so far-reaching that the state must set itself seriously to the task of prevention and cure."

Prevention must come through regularizing seasonal and fluctuating industries, cutting down the turnover of labor and undertaking public construction work during periods of depression. The cure proposed is the public employment office.

"Even more important than the growing realization of the evils found in many private agencies is the development of the sense of public responsibility for unemployment. This is seen in the importance attached to this subject by those planning conferences on the social problems of today."

The bulletin makes this comment on private employment agencies: "One's sense of justice is offended at the thought of a willing and industrious worker being obliged to pay for the privilege of applying for a job."

Better order the Herald saved for you at the news stand or from the boy. All sold out is the word at all agencies every evening. The Herald is the people's popular paper—stands for Portsmouth.

SMALL PATROL BOAT SUNK; CREW SAVED

An Atlantic Port, Oct. 22.—The five members of the crew of a small gas-line-propelled scout patrol vessel attached to the second naval district were rescued today after their craft had burned and sunk. The lack of the engine started the blaze, which the men fought with hand extinguishers until the vessel began to sink.

Meanwhile they had sent a wireless call for assistance and shortly after they had been forced to jump into the water several patrol boats arrived and picked them up.

DESTROYERS IN U-BOAT CHASE

American Naval Base, France, Oct. 21.—Ten American destroyers took part in one of the most successful submarine hunts on Aug. 9. They were heading south in column formation when the leading destroyer sighted a periscope to her port bow at 800 yards and gave chase. The submarine submerged but the destroyer, steamed ahead of her and dropped two depth bombs in her path and then let go 14 charges in a circle. Suddenly the bow of the submarine emerged and became the target for the shells of the destroyer. As the submarine again submerged, apparently helpless, the destroyer passed directly over her and dropped two charges directly on her at a depth of 20 feet. Nothing further was seen of the submarine.

Another encounter followed a submarine attack on a big American repair ship entering port. The torpedo fired at close range, just missed the rudder of the American vessel. An American destroyer dashed to the attack and dropped a barrage of depth charges. A streak of oil came to the surface, indicating the submarine was following a zig zag course. Another destroyer and several submarine chasers joined in the hunt, dropping depth charges on oil patches along the route. It is believed the submarine was damaged and that several days later it was destroyed by a depth charge.

Unusual activity was displayed by the submarines in the Bay of Biscay on Aug. 15 and 16. One American destroyer reported that she had destroyed or damaged a large submarine on the 15th. But the same day three American freighters were attacked and two of them, the Montanan and the Cubero, were sunk. More than 150 of the crew of the French cruiser Du Petit Theatre were rescued by American destroyers when she was torpedoed on Aug. 8, eliciting a note of thanks of the French naval authorities to the American naval commander. Highest tribute was paid by the American naval commander in France to American, French and British destroyers which managed to bring into port the American freight steamer Westward ho after she had been torpedoed, thus saving a cargo of airplanes, field artillery, rifles, machine guns and ammunition.

CANDIDATES GIVEN A WARM GREETING

Republicans Hold Informal Gathering to Meet Senatorial and State Candidates

There was an exceptionally enthusiastic gathering at the Rockingham hotel on Monday evening, when upwards of a hundred or more prominent Republicans of this city and vicinity dropped in to pay their respects to the Republican candidates who were making a tour of this section of the state. Owing to the epidemic and the ban on public gatherings through the state it has been impossible to hold political rallies and the meeting of last evening was to have been just a dropping in of the Republicans on the candidates.

There were present the two candidates for United States senate, Hon. George H. Moses of Concord, former ambassador to Greece, and Gov. H. W. Keyes, Congressman Sherman B. Burroughs of Manchester; candidate for governor, Col. John H. Bartlett of this city, and Councilor from this district, A. G. Waltham of Dover.

They mingled with the crowd in the hotel office and later adjournment was taken to the billiard hall where there was an informal gathering. Hon. Wallace Hackett introduced the speakers, who made brief but very forceful remarks about the political situation.

Hon. George H. Moses, the first speaker, said that by an agreement with the Liberty Loan committee politics had been under the ban while it was in progress, but it was over, and the ban was off and this was the opportunity for every Republican to stand out and declare himself as a Republican and be proud of the fact; for there was never a time when the Republicans had so much to be proud of as at the present time. It was the Republicans who had made possible the prosecution of the war to such a successful stage as at present, by standing back of the President on all of the measures that were for the successful prosecution of the war.

Gov. Keyes, a candidate for the United States senate, made a brief but very forceful talk, in which he called attention to the fact that it was the Republicans who were for the war measures and of the great need of the Republicans to get together and elect the entire ticket, and especially was it Portsmouth's place to give the ticket, with their own townsman a candidate for governor, a rousing majority. He was very confident that the entire ticket would be elected and that New Hampshire would retain its proud place in the Republican ranks.

Congressman Burroughs tore apart the talk advanced by the Democrats that they should support the President by picturing the condition in Congress when the President asked that the draft bill be passed; the bill which had made it possible for the United States to become such a powerful factor in the present great struggle. When the Democrats opposed the President the speaker taking the floor against it with the head of the military committee and the Democratic floor leader, and it was a Republican who had made possible the passage of the bill which was supported by the entire Republican minority. If he had depended upon the Democratic party the bill would never have been passed and would many of his greatest war measures. The Republican minority would well feel proud of the support that they had unquestionably given the President in every war measure.

Mr. Waltham, the candidate for Governor's council, also spoke briefly.

Col. J. H. Bartlett, the candidate for governor, was the last of the candidates to be heard and he prefaced his remarks by a few stories and then launched into the position that the state of New Hampshire has held in the country since the war began, that of the most loyal supporter to every war work and war measure. It held a position second to none in the Union and it was all under Republican officials and with the hearty support of every Republican. They did not grow about the conservation measures and other war necessities, but cheerfully complied with the request. The Democrats had no such loyal record in the state, they did all of the growling and he did not think that the voters of the state would change the existing condition and he pledged himself to carry out every policy of the government now in office and give unselfish support to every war work and measure.

Dr. John H. Neal closed the speaking with an informal talk on the need of every Republican supporting the ticket this year more than ever. Every man on the ticket was pledged to the most loyal support of the war measures of the President and to the successful prosecution of the war because he was the President of the United States irrespective of party. You could always depend upon the loyalty of the Republicans to the government, but never the Democratic party.

The candidates will today visit the navy yards, the ship yards and the various plants and in the afternoon go to Dover, where they will hold another informal meeting there.

ARRESTED FOR ROBBERY IN KITTERY HOTEL

Liberty Bonds, Bank Book and Jewelry Gone Valued at $800.

Cornelius McGinty, an engineer from Wisconsin, working on the heating plant being put into the Government Hotel Champernowne, Kittery Point, reported to Deputy Sheriff Maurice S. Leach of Eliot, Monday evening, that his room in the hotel had been entered during the day, and that he and his wife, Vera McGinty, had lost bonds, jewelry and other property valued at more than $800.

Joseph Reardon, another workman at the hotel, who gave his address on the register as Brockton, Mass., was arrested at the hotel early this Tuesday morning, by the deputy sheriff, after McGinty had sworn to a complaint charging Reardon with the theft, and on a warrant from the Kittery municipal criminal court.

McGinty told the deputy sheriff that among the articles taken from the trunk in the room, were Liberty Bonds, war savings stamps, two diamond rings, one gold ring, one silver ring one gold watch, one enamel watch one lavalliere a bank book issued to him by the First National Bank of Portsmouth, for over $200, and stock certificates of a Portsmouth store and a foundry in Wisconsin.

McGinty told the officer that on going to Reardon's room with the hotel clerk, they found a screwdriver on the floor that fitted into the marks made on the trunk which had been pried open and that on Reardon's bed was found a little piece of poetry about "McGinty" that had been cut by Mr. McGinty himself from the Portsmouth Herald of Saturday evening last, which clipping he had intended to send to his home in Wisconsin. Mr. McGinty had placed the clipping in the Jewel box of his wife, until he should be ready to send it home.

Upon a further investigation of the case by the deputy sheriff, the evidence was presented to the court, and a warrant asked for Reardon's arrest. The case will probably be tried this evening in the Kittery court.

ANNOUNCEMENT CAME FROM OVER THE SEA

The wedding of Henry Gerrish, a former well known local young man and Miss Frances Elizabeth Malbone, formerly of this city, has recently been announced.

The couple were married on Nov. 16 of last year in Hartford, Conn., but owing to the groom seeing service with the army overseas the marriage was kept secret.

Both of the contracting parties are well known here. The groom is the son of Mrs. Isabella Gerrish of this city and held a position at the navy yard for some time. He is now in the army "somewhere in France."

The recruits are from New Hampshire and came from Concord, Manchester, Dover, Laconia, Exeter, Berlin, Milford, Rochester, Keene, North Conway and other points. Nearly every quota was shy two or three men due to the influenza. The last of the several quotas will not arrive until this evening on the Concord and Portsmouth branch of the N. & M.

The men marched to the army reservation and their first appearance gave the people the impression that Uncle Sam had picked another bunch of good soldiers for his army. They compared with any draftees so far sent here for training.
